

Clare hotel wins big at 2023 Gala Irish Golf Awards

Erika Sassone
Today at 12:38

Dromoland Castle, in County Clare, has won big at this year's 2023 Gala Irish Golf Awards. The 26th year of Gala Irish Golf Awards, the Irish golf tourism industry's biggest prize-giving ceremony, presented as always by the Ireland Golf Tour Operator Association (IGTOA), was held last week in the stunningly refurbished Slieve Donard Hotel Newcastle, Co. Down.

Pete Snodden, host of Cool FM's Breakfast Show, was emcee for a black-tie soiree that opened with a welcome address from IGTOA Charman Denis Kane.

And it was a night to savour for some of the best known golf courses in Ireland with Dromoland Castle, in Newmarket on Fergus in Co Clare, receiving the showcase of the year award for the KPMG Women's Irish Open, Tralee Golf Course named Golf Links of the Year, the K Club Parkland Course of the year and Druids Glen named Golf resort of the year.

The North had a strong representation among the winners as Curran Gate Apartments in Portrush scooped Boutique property of the Year, Killeavy Castle Estate and The Merchant Hotel Belfast receiving Service Excellence Awards.